MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Conversation with Mr. Walter Pincus

	1. Following the Director's instructions, I called 25X1A	Mr. Walter Pincus today to tell him that would be leaving this afternoon to return to Laos. I said that we wanted to check with the Subcommittee, however, before 25X1A	departure to assure that there were no outstanding matters involving him.
25X1A	2. Mr. Pincus said that, as far as the Subcommittee
20/1/4	was concerned, he saw no reason why was should not 25X1A	return. He added that he wanted to convey on behalf of the Chairman his apologies to presumably for any inconvenience caused him by his return to the U.S., particularly since his direct testimony was not required.)
	3. Mr. Pincus also asked that I pass on to the Director 25X1A	and to their appreciation for a very fine presentation.
	He said he wished that the testimony of all witnesses could have been at this level. I told him I would be glad to pass the message.
25X1A
